

FUTUREPROOFING YOUR CHILD'S EDUCATION

SUNDAY 22 SEPTEMBER 2019
09:00 - 16:30

AGA KHAN CENTRE, KING'S CROSS, LONDON

The Aga Khan Education Board invites parents and carers of 0-18 year olds to a conference featuring over 20 leading educationalists and thought leaders.

In an increasingly fragmented environment, it can be challenging to know what to prioritise when making education decisions and this conference covers a wide range of key areas to help navigate you.

*"... there is no greater form of preparation for change than education."
His Highness the Aga Khan, October 2002*

Some of the essential areas we will cover include:

- How do you access the relevant and correct information?
- What factors do you need to consider when making education choices?
- What trends will impact prospects over the next 20 years?

The conference covers areas of interest to suit each parent and carer, including:

Speakers will be from ACS International Schools, Enfield Educational Psychology Service and CAMHS, Good School's Guide, Google, Global App Testing, Henley Business School, Harrow School, Isaac Newton Academy, St James's Place Wealth Management, SchoolDash and more.
