

Top Revision Tips!

Make a plan!

Starting early and making a revision plan is a great way to make exams less stressful.

You can download a revision planner from

www.oxfordsecondary.co.uk/revision

Find a quiet place

Find a quiet space at home or at school where you can work without being disturbed.

Stay healthy

Studying requires brain power, so make sure you fuel your brain with healthy meals and snacks.

Make it work for you

The way you revise best may be different to how your friend does, so find what works best for YOU.

Practice makes perfect

Test yourself at the end of a topic and use exam-style questions to see how you're getting on. Going through past papers is a great way to prepare.

Get support from family & friends

Get support from family and friends. Let them know when you need space and time to study.

Take regular breaks

Schedule short breaks and give your brain a rest once in a while.

Reward yourself when you've completed a task to keep yourself motivated.

Use kerboodle

Kerboodle is packed with digital support materials and exam practice to help you succeed.

Visit www.kerboodle.com to find out more.

For more support and resources visit

www.oxfordsecondary.co.uk/revision

OXFORD